Dear Mr. Scantling:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)/Privacy Act request dated July 5, 2019, and received by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) on July 5, 2019, in which you requested records concerning an improvised explosive device attack against US forces in Iraq. Your request has been assigned number 2019-1292. Please refer to this number on any future correspondence.

Please be advised that a search has been conducted and based on the information you provided to us, we were not able to locate any responsive records subject to the Freedom of Information Act.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

You may contact our FOIA Public Liaisons, Darryl Webb or Zina Kornegay, at (202) 648-7390, for any further assistance and to discuss any aspect of your request. Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, Room 2510, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, e-mail at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448; or facsimile at 202-741-5769.
